With the Advance of Fall Members of Fashionable Set Turn from the Pleasures of Track and Turf and Resume the Social Gayeties of the Town.

Society was out in force yesterday and a week ago Saturday for the races of the Piping Rock Association, at the club grounds, at Locust Valley, Long Island. Yesterday's races marked the close of the fall track season, and the scene will be shifted to Belmont Park Terminal, for two or three weeks. The opening of the new season, until the opening of the new season, about four weeks hence, the members of the fashionable world who are still in the country will devote their time to these events, week-end entertainments, with occasional visits to the city for shopping, dinner and the theatre.

Among those who were seen at Piping Rock were Mrs. H. Bramhall Gilbert, whose engagement to Captain Cyril Patrick William Francis Cragmore, of the British army service corps, was recently announced; Miss Louise Iselin, daughter of Adrian Iselin; Miss Ruth King, daughter of David H. King, jr., and Mrs. Alexander D. B. Pratt.

In St. Thomas's Church next Wednesday afternoon Miss Emily Dearborn Ayres, the only daughter of the late Colonel Charles G. Ayres, 10th Cavalry, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ayres, will be married to George Emilen Starr, a son of the late Colonel James Emilen Starr, of Philadelphia. The ceremony will be performed by the Right Rev. Lucian Kinsolving, Bishop of Brazil; his brother, the Rev. Arthur Kinsolving, of Baltimore, both cousins of the bride, and the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of the church. The bride will have no attendants. James Starr, of Philadelphia, will act as his brother's best man, and the ushers will be John Walter Fairfax, Arthur L. Wheeler, Theodore Ducoing Starr, Walter S. Wheeler, John Wagner, Martin V. Bergen, Henry H. Stout and Lewis H. Parsons. Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the Plaza.

Another wedding next Wednesday will be that of Miss Phoebe Judkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Judkins, of No. 22 East 64th street, and F. Harrison Higgins, a son of the late Frank W. Higgins, at one time Governor of New York. It will take place at the Church of the Heavenly Rest and will be followed by a reception at the St. Regis. The bride will be attended by Mrs. John N. Tonnele, Mrs. Frederick Richards, Mrs. Roger Lutz, Miss Evelyn Alvord and Miss Jeannette Reid. Roger Lutz will be Mr. Higgins's best man, and Grover Cleveland Loening, Beckwith Havens, Frank Keene and Pascal Franchot will be ushers.

Miss Eloise Talcott, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Edward Wyckoff Harris, of No. 55 West 5th street, will be married next Saturday afternoon to Horace Dorsey Newson, jr., son of Mr. and brides and flower girls. Norman Evans, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man, and the ushers will include Henry T. F. Fleitmann, J. G. Blaine Ewing, John Reid, Jr., George S. Oliver, H. Wilfred Dupuy and Charles Oliver. Mr. Evans will give his farewell bachelor dinner on October 31 at the Pittsburgh Club. Mrs. Fleitmann and her daughter have returned from Seabright, N. J., where they spent the summer, and are at No. 42 West 77th street for the winter.

Miss Francis I. Manice, daughter of Mrs. Heaton Manice, of Flushing, Long Island, will be married to Walter W. Albrecht, of Hamburg, Germany, during the week between Christmas and New Year's. The exact date has not been set. The engagement was announced in May. Miss Manice is a sister of Mrs. Wharton Poor, who was recently married in Flushing, and a cousin of William de Forest Manice, who married Miss Harriet Ferry in June, and of Miss Sarah Remsen Manice, whose engagement to Charles Henry Mellon was announced in September. Mr. Albrecht is a son of Dr. Max Albrecht, of Hamburg.

At the Gotham on Monday, October 21, Miss Elsie Whitmore Southwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mortimer Southwick, will be married to Charles Waterbury Clark, of this city. The bride will be attended by Mrs. Reginald Ducat. Henry Austin Clark will be best man, and the ushers chosen are J. Allen Townsend, Anson Flower Robinson, Joseph R. Sheffield, William A. Slayback, Nathaniel A. Campbell and Alfred B. Meacham.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Cook, of No. 32 East 64th street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Madeline H. Cook, to Theodore P. Dixon, of this city. Miss Cook spent the summer with her parents at their country place at Sag Harbor, Long Island. Mr. Dixon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Courtlandt P. Dixon, of No. 52 West 49th street. He was graduated from Yale in 1907 and is a member of the Racquet and Tennis Club. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon have a country home at Ridgefield, Conn.

Mrs. Cornelius H. Callaghan, of No. 69 East 54th street, announced last week the engagement of her daughter by a former marriage, Miss Ada Bryce Gray, to Edward Loudon Norton, jr., of this city. Miss Gray was introduced to society two seasons ago at the Colony Club. She spent the greater part of the summer cruising with her mother on William Taylor's yacht Adrea, and was present at the marriage, on August 30, of her mother, who was Mrs. Henry Belt, to Mr. Callaghan, in the Cathedral of Hallfax, N. S. Her grandmother, Mrs. Bryce Gray, lives in South Orange, N. J. Mr. Norton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Loudon Norton, of No. 256 West 74th street.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Laura McDonald Stallo, daughter of Edmund K. Stallo, of this city, and a granddaughter of the late over the week end of Miss Vieve Fisher at Oyster Bay, Long Island.

GENERAL SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Helen Paris will be married to Charles W. P. Smith on Friday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Paris, in Flushing. Mr. Smith is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cresson Smith, who made their home last winter at the Hotel Vanderbilt. Mr. Smith was graduated from Dartmouth College this year. A brother of Miss Paris, Rex L. Paris, married Miss Finley, daughter of Charles E. Finley, president of the Aina National Bank.

Miss Hazel M. Rhinock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Rhinock, was married on Wednesday at the home of her parents, No. 210 Riverside Drive, to William H. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Williams. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. David G. Wylie, of the Scotch Presbyterian Church, and a reception, supper and dance followed. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white charmeuse, trimmed with Carriackmacross lace. Her tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of Scotch heather, with orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. Her attendants were Miss Laura Rhinock and Mrs. Herbert S. Needham. The former was in a gown of silver trimmed net over satin, and wore a corsage bouquet of white gardenias. Mrs. Needham's costume was of silver trimmed
